NOTICE OF DATE CHANGE FOR INFORMAL WORKSHOP REGARDING TITLE INSURANCE STATISTICAL PLAN REGULATIONS

REG-2007-00024

January 14, 2008

The California Department of Insurance ("Department") hereby notifies all interested persons that the Informal Workshop previously scheduled for January 22, 2008 will be rescheduled.

The Department has prepared a new draft of the statistical plan regulations. That draft, together with the findings contained in a recently-completed Information Technology Report ("IT Report") commissioned by the Department, are currently under review. The draft regulations will be shared and discussed publicly as soon as the Commissioner and his staff have had a full opportunity to consider the draft and related findings of the IT Report.

Although a new date for the Informal Workshop has not been selected, the Department anticipates that the Workshop will be held in mid-February, 2008. Once decided, the new date for the Informal Workshop will be mailed to interested persons and posted on the Department's website. The Department also expects to share with the public its proposed revisions to the statistical plan within the next few weeks.

Interested persons are encouraged to check the Department's website for updates by visiting the web address and following the instructions set forth below:
